GETS OFF TO A GOOD START

EASTERN RACING SEASON OPENS IN AUSPIC-IOUS MANNER AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia Contribute to Big Crowd That Gives Maryland Meeting a Good Sendoff-Spring Board Wins a Stake.

Havre de Grace, Md., April 18.—Spring Board, carrying the colors of Capt. E. B. Cassatt, beat a band of good sprinters in the feature race of the Harford Agriculture and Breeders' Association opening this afternoon. He was ridden by Wolfe, made all of his own pace, and led Sir Blaise a couple of lengths as the finishing mark was passed. Caugh illl was third and Adams Express fourth. The opening of the eastern racing season brought out a tremendous gathering from New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Several special trains ran from the two latter points and about 500 made the trip. From New York to give the meeting a good sendoff. Small fields went to the post and the contests were tame. The arrivals of many stables from Norfolk is expected to result in more liberal entries in the future. Double Five made a runaway of the opener and the Whitney two-year-old Trumps was pulled up to her opposition in the second. The disappointment of the afterneon was furnished by Discovery in the closing dash. He broke slowly and, after moving up into a contending position, suddenly quilt. This enabled Lysander to open up a big lead, which he managed to retain to the finish.

Thirty-five layers cut in this afternoon, including the following: J. Engeman, Roy Offutt, W. Beyerley, T. J. Shaw, Horace Paul, W. Henston, W. R. Engstrom, Wm. J. Connor, J. M. Coburn, Albert Ess, Gus Blume, Gene Moyne, Steve L'Hommedian, M. Shapiro, P. J. McGrath, P. Carroll, Sam Bradley, Elole Pearsall, Bob Kennedy, Sol Licthenstein, Gus Zeller, Joe Ziegler, Joe Blume, Ben Davis, Johnny Lewis, Frank Tyler, Al Hanf, S. Most, Henry Fianf, M. M. Caswis, and I. Ham.

Mars Cassidy was among those who came over from Washington. He announced that he had' been engaged to do the starting during the summer meeting at Saratoga. This will not conflict with his Kenthecky engagements.

Edward Cole has been engaged to act as presiding indge at Deforminer Park, Montreal. He will officiate in the same capacity at the Hillcrest and Dufferin Park tracks in Toronto, He is ar

Park tracks in Torono.

Increes to Montreal, where the meeting will begin May 24.

Kimball Patterson is here from Kentucky with four of Mr. Earl's horses. He brought jockey H. Radike with him.

Francis J. Pons came from his farm at Nashville, Tenn. He reports that a foal arrived a few days ago by the Sain stallion, Tony Bonero, out of The Commoner mare, Oneata. Mr. Pons lost three horses during the past ten days, Wiley B. and Thetis dying of car fever, while Zack Wiggins was killed at Norfolk. He will probably ship his stable from here to Saratoga and rest his horses for that meeting.

here to Saratoga and rest his horses for that meeting.

C. O. Smith arrived from Chicago this morning and will remain during the meeting. Other prominent racing men present were Capt. Ex. B. Cassatt, Daye Gideon, Charlie Hill, William Lakeland, Sig Levý, Jack McDonald, M. K. Kittleman, John Fay of Checimati and George Considine.

H. G. Bedwell has the biggest string here. There are twenty-seven horses in his stable.

In the string that J. P. Mayberry brought here is the Piping Rock subscription filly by Electioneer—Motley that was drawn by C. K. G. Billings. She is a magnificent individual and has attracted a great deal of attention. William Lakeland, who bred the filly, has a brother to her, now a three-year-old, that he will race at liavre de Grace.

W. S. House has arrived from Benning with three horses.

At Weston is here with ten horses belonging to himself, Thomas Clyde and Capt. W. F. Presgrave.

Priscillian and a couple of two-year-olds belonging to August Belmont are among the horses quartered here.

The R. T. Wilson stable, which T. J. Healey brought here, numbers sixteen. Three of the lot—Flying Yankee, Naushon and Penobscot—are being averaged into immers.

The R. T. Wilson stable, which T. J. Healey brought here, numbers sixteen. Three of the lot—Flying Yankee: Naushon and Penobscot—are being converted into jumpers.

The Capt. E. B. Cassatt shipment to Havre de Grace included Spring Board, Flying Fairy, Lawsuit and the following two year-olds by Aeronaut: Scrapper, dam Litigant: Spearhead, dam Dartee; Humiliation, dam Millie A.; Breakfast, dam Surrise, and Strap, dam Stettle Bouncer.

Recent arrivals include John Whalen, with Buskin, Honey Bee, Flammarion and three or four others; Albert Simons, with the Whitney horses; William M. Carter, with the Thomas Fortune Ryan horses; W. L. Oliver, with the Dr. J. S. Tyree, string: Harry Rites, with eight; W. D. Althonse, with six; W. T. Anderson, with fourteen, and Woods Garth, with an even dozen.

Walter Congdon is handling the Beverwyck Stable horses that are in training here.

The Fitzsimmons stable is a big one, numbering twenty-two.

The Oniver Stable horses number seven and A. J.

twenty-two. The Quincy Stable horses number seven and Λ. J. Goldsborough has five, headed by Textile.

MACMANUS RACERS DOING WELL.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—0. A. Bianchi is going very slowly this spring with J. MacManus' Presumption. This speedy gelding looks better now than he has since he was a two-year-old, when he was rated as one of the best youngsters in training. Al Block and Anna Patricia, two other horses in the MacManus' string, are also working well for trainer Blanchi. Mr. MacManus is expected here next week and will go to Lexington for the opening of the meeting there on April 26.

Gilpy Works Fastest Five Furlongs of the Season at Churchill Downs.

at Churchill Downs.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—Most of the Kentucky Derby candidates at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park rested today. The favorite, Hawthorn, was cantered slowly for a mile and a half.

W. E. Applegate & Co.'s speedy Gilpy worked five-eighths in 1:90%. He went the first three forlogs in 35½, and the half mile in '47%. This is the fastest five furiongs worked over the Downs' course this spring. Round the World, from the same stable, went the same distance in 1:02%. She did the first quarter in '23%, three-eighths in :36, and the half in :39. Other work-outs included:

Any Port—Mile in 1:44.
Capitan Bravo—Three-quarters in 1:29.
First Cherry—Half mile in 49%.
Jean Gray—Three-eighths in 40, cantering.
Old Ben—Half mile in :49%.
Jean Gray—Three-eighths in 40, cantering.
Old Ben—Half mile in :43. Apparently all out, Swish—Mile in 1:45. Isandily.

Robinetta—Half mile in :43.
F. J. Gerfer will ship his Kentucky Derby and Oaks candidate, Florat Park, to Lexington, together with the two-year-old Art Rick, a son of the Hamburg sire Leonidas, Mr. Grefer announced that Floral Park will first start at Lexington in the Ashland Oaks on Ap :129 and will also sucely start in the Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks. He has engaged Charles Peak to ride the flip in all these events. Peak piloted Free Lance when that cold won the Latonia Derby last spring.
Catesby Woodford has ordered his twelve horses shipped to Lexington. He has Christmas Star, which is entered both for the Ashland Oaks and the Kentucky Oaks. In both these races she will be ridden by jockey Gross.

W. E. Applegate & Co.'s Oakland is sick with fever. His temperature today was 103. Trainer W. H. Buckner will make no further attempt to train the son of Lexington on Tuesday next.

Irish Gentieman has recovered entirely from his soreness in the foot owing to a hoof spreading and is doing nicely in his work. Trainer Herdel is pointing him especially for the Kentucky Handicap.

Doerhoefer & West will take to Lexington on tater than next berg is employed by a mercantile firm in the Mound City.

J. Sweeney, who holds the contract on the promising apprentice rider, Andy Neylon, has about decided to give Charley Rowe, who has the string of Otto Stifel in training at Douglas Park, first call on this lad's services for the Kentucky meetings.

RACING GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, April 18.—Saratoga's race meeting in August will be featured by the revival of many famous stakes. Conditions for twenty-eight fixtures have been announced by the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses. The list includes the Saratoga Handicap, $5,000 guaranteed; the Sandford Memorial, $1,500 guaranteed, which takes the place of the Hurricana Stakes, and the Saratoga Special, which will carry $1,000 in added money and $500 in plate. Other stakes are the Saratoga Cup, Champlain, Delaware and Merchants and Citizens Handicaps, the Travers, Huroa, Alabama, Saranae, Mohawk and Seneca, all for three-year-olds.

chants and Citizens Handicaps, the Travers, Huron, Alabama, Saranac, Mohawk and Seneca, all for three-year-olds.

The two-year-old fixtures are the Hopeful, United States Hotel, Grand Union Hotel, Flash, Spinaway, Albany Handicap, Adfrondack Handicap, Troy and Kentucky Selling Stakes. The steeplechases are the Saratoga. North American, Beverwyck and Shilletah. Eatiries close on May 12.

The overnight program for the Belmont Park meeting will be made up in two books. The first, which is now under consideration, will be for nine days, and provisions will be made for all classes of horses. The stake events are ample to take care of the better class of horses to a large extent, while selling platers and horses of cheaper class will find plenty of opportunities in the overnight races. The program for the last nine days will not be made up until after the horses are on the ground and will be framed to suit the material at hand.

Chauncey M. Ward, of Richmond, Vá., called at the office of the Jockey Club a day or two ago and said that he will have a small stable to race over the metropolitan tracks this season. Mr. Ward is establishing a breeding farm in Virginia and is on the lookout for well-bred broodmares.

A. L. Aste has just received word that a strapping bay coir by Jack Point, out of Gold Ten, has been foaled at Glen Helen Stud in Kentucky. He is a brother to Ten Point, which promises to be one of the greatest three-year-olds of the year, Gold Ten will not be bred this year.

GLIDING BELLE'S FIRST FOAL

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—W. F. Schulte's promising two-year-old Noiseless, a half-brother to Gliding Belle, has been sick at Churchill Downs, but trainer R. Brooks thinks he has his ailment conquered and hopes to be able to begin working the son of Sempronius within the next few days. Gliding Belle now in the stud at Argyle Farm, has just foaled her nrst colt. He is a bay in color and is by Sempronious. The broodmare Kitty Belle Brooks, by Clifford, has also just foaled a brown filly by Jim Gaffney at the Schulte place. The foals now coming by the latter horse are his first in Kentucky and are regarded as of unusual promise. Jim Gaffney is a brother to Golden Maxim.

TWELVE FOALS AT BASHFORD MANOR FARM

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—There are twelve foals at George J. Long's Bashford Manor Farm this spring and the owner of Free Lance has seventeen yearlings there. The noted broodmare Golden Rose, the dam of Ben Trovato, Rose of Gold, El Toro, and Steplightly, has been booked this spring to Alvescot, She recently foaled a brown filly by Garry Herrmann. She is now owned by the Philadelphia turfman J. E. Widener.

JOCKEY CLUB TEMPORARILY ENJOINED.

Order of Federal Judge Restricts Governing Organ ization's Sphere to New York.

ization's Sphere to New York.

New York, April 18.—The temporary injunction granted by Judge Julius M. Mayer in the United States District Court forbids the Jockey Club, the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and the officers and members of both to exercise any authority or jurisdiction in any way over racing in any part of the United States except with New York state. Both organizations and their officers are also restrained from interfering in any way with any horse, horse owner, race track owner, trainer or jockey participating in any meeting not sanctioned by the Jockey Club.

The order is made returnable April 25 before Judge Mayer, when the officers of both organizations and of virtually every other racing association in this state must show cause why the Jockey Club and its auxilliary associations should not permanently be restrained from exercising any official influence on racing outside this state.

This is the first response of the Federal Court to the petition of the Maryland State Fair Association, which controls a race course at Laurel, Md., and which through Manager Harry D. Brown, presents the plea that the Jockey Club's influence over racing is virtually "an illegal combination in restraint of trade," to quote the petition. Attorney Grant Fox represents the Maryland organization.

The temporary order will not have any serious effect upon racing at Norfolk, Pimlico nor upon the race meeting which opens today at Havre de Grace, although this is one of the meetings authorized by the Jockey Club and conducted under its rules and, regulations. Stewards have been appointed by the Jockey Club and conducted under its rules and, regulations. Stewards have been appointed by the Jockey Club and conducted under its rules and, regulations. NOTES OF THE TURF.

Louis Tauber has only one horse in training, the old gelding, Spindle, now quartered at Lexington Tauber has several horses in view to purchase it they can be secured, and he is likely to get a couple of additions to his stable out of John W Schorr's string.

Schorr's string.

Neil Enright, long associated with W. O. Joplin as a trainer, has abandoned the turf and embarked in business in Louisville, Ky. Enright ceased training last fall, though he spent the winter at the Juarez track. When he returns to the turf it will be as the owner of a racing stable.

The J. C. Milam string, in training at Lexington includes Merrick, now in his tenth year, Morristown Star of Danube, Cecil, Billie Baker, Olga Stol Holly Wreath, Leo Skolmy, Joe Rosenfield an Maud B. L. Cecil, Billie Baker and Olga Stoll at three-year-olds and the last four are two-year-olds three-year-olds and the last four are two-year-olds. Follie Levy, recently purchased by A. B. Hancock, owner of Ellerslie Stud in Virginia, has been shipped to Lexington from Louisville by W. C. Clancy, and taken to Castleton Farm, where she will be mated at once with Celt. She is one of twelve mares that Hancock has booked to the son of Commando this season. He has twenty-five yearling cotts and fillies, all by Celt, at Ellerslie Stud. Jockey Borel will go to Lexington next Tuesday and will ride there during the coming Kentucky Association meeting. His employer, W. E. Applegate, will likely ship all his horses, now at Churchill Downs, to Lexington early next week. Several of these horses he will race there and then turn out for a summer's rest. Trainer W. H. Buckner is still doubtful about Jupiter Joe getting to the races again. So far Gilpy has been going soundly.

FOALS ARRIVING AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., April 18.—Three foals have recently been dropped by mares of local owners. Two are from mares owned by C. S. Campbell and the other from a mare owned by Sr H. Montagne Allan. The foals are colts, and the result of the mating of some of the best-bred horses owned in Canada. The foal at Sir Montagn Allan's farm is out of the mare Reine de Saxe and is stred by Floral King.

Those owned by C. S. Campbell are a bay colt from the mare Billposter, by Olseau, a horse that during his early racing career was sold at a big figure. The other is by Red Fox II, out of the mare Called Back. Red Fox II, is one of two in America of the get of the famous Flying Fox, for which M. Blane, in France, paid $187,500 during the season of 1900. Called Back was sent to Barriel Ont., where Red Fox is standing as the property of the Brookdale Stud, the owners of which imported him some two or three years ago. These foals are not only eligible for the King's Plate in future years, but also for the newly announced Breeders' Stakes of the Montreal Jockey Club.

ALL READY IN THE FAR WEST

PACIFIC COAST SEASON OF RACING TO BE INAUGURATED THIS AFTERNOON.

Devotees of Sport from All Parts of Western Country Gathered at Spokane-Pari-Mutuels to Be Means of Speculation

Spekane, Wash., April 18.—The third annual meeting of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association will open tomorrow at the beautiful Alan course. The prospects for a successful opening are bright. The city is filled with racegors of the west, with a sprinkling of easterpers. Many devotees of the sport have journeyed here from Vancouver, Victoria. Seattle and Portland, while there are numerous familiar faces from California and Texas.

Presiding Judge Robert Leighton, the last of the officials to arrive, came this morning from his Vancouver home. The other officials have been here for some time.

For the Opening Handicap, nine are carded to face starter Edward Tribe and the weights assigned by handicapper Phil Reilly are so evenly balanced that the race has an open look.

The pari-mutuel system of betting has been adopted by the management and will be used throughout the meeting. Ten machines have been installed for the present and four more are held in reserve to be used if occasion demands it. The quality of the horses now on the grounds, numbering over 400, measures well with the class seen here in past seasons.

WORK-OUTS AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

Havre de Grace, Md., April 18.—The horses were not allowed to work over the Harford Agriculture and Breeders' Association track this morning. This because the track superintendent was auxious to have the course in the best possible condition for the opening day's racing. The track dried out rapidly during the day and will be in excellent condition for racing over topogrous.

After the day's racing was completed, quite a umber of horses worked, including the following: Azyiade—Three-quarters in 1:16. Acts extra good and should be an early winner. Barnegat—Five-eighths in 1:08. Going along slowly. Blackford—Three-quarters in 1:21. Is not yet

ANOTHER RACING BILL AT SPRINGFIELD.

Springfield, III., April 18.—Granting of financial aid by the state to organizations conducting horse races is proposed in a bill introduced in the Senate, yesterday by Senator Hamilton of Mattoon.

The bill places racing organizations in the same class with societies which give agricultural exhibits and fairs, and which receive aid from the state. It is provided that racing societies shall become affiliated with the department of agriculture.

Regulations are included in the bill for the holding of races which are designed to aid racing organizations in the downstate cities, The same bill was introduced in the house by Representative Briscoe of Westfield. The Senate bill was referred to the committee on agriculture, while the house bill went to the committee on licenses.

BACHELOR GIRL GOES TO STUD.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—E. R. Bradley has bought back from trainer William Hurley the four-year-old filly, Bachelor Girl, and will ship her to Idle Hour Farm at once to be retired to the stud. The daughter of Broomstisk was quite a good two-year-old, but has since been a disappointment, though she won in Canada last summer and at Juarez the past winter. She will be mated to Cunard this spring. Mr. Bradley received word to-day from Idle Hour Farm that Grail, a sister to Shrine, by Atheling, has just fooled a handsome bay filly by Jack Atkin, and Sister Caroline, a sister to Flo Carline, has dropped a chestnut filly by Cunard. Both these mares will be mated this season with, Sain.

JOCKEY CALLAHAN READY FOR SERVICE.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—Jockey J. Callahan has arrived from El Paso. He will go to Lexington next week to ride on the Kentucky tracks this spring and summer. He will be a free lance. Callahan was hurt at Juarez and remained in El Paso under a dector's care after the winter meeting closed at the Mexican track. He is now in good condition. He reports that jockey J. Whatley, who had a leg broken in a race at Juarez last winter and who was in the hospital at El Paso, has been able to go to his home in New York and expects to be in condition to resume riding within the next few weeks. Whatley will ride on the half-mile tracks in Canada this season.

French Brooks sent Woodford Clay's bay gelding by Knight Errant—Rose Tree II., a half in :49.
If was the best work of the morning by a two-year-old and looks as if Mr. Clay has a grand race horse in this youngster.

J. C. Weaver arrived yesterday from Latonia with his high-class filly, Gowell, Lady Lightning, John G. Weaver, Marsion and Old Honesty. The last-named has been going along soundly and Mr. Weaver expects to win a purse with him here this springs. He brought him down for Dave Vititoe, Weaver reports about 100 horses stabled at Latonia, The track was good enough most of the winter to keep the horses in condition. His lot are all ready for racing and will take some beating.

Lexington, Ky., April 17 (Special Correspondence). The following work-outs took place this morning yer a fast track:

each work-out.

The Karrick horses, which arrived from Aiken, S. C., look to be in the best of health and most of them appear to be fit to race at once. All of them shipped well.

Jockey Eddie Martin has gone to his home in Covington, Ky., for a short visit with relatives,

J. W. May is developing a colored apprentice named Steele, whose contract he purchased from Will Woodard at Charleston last winter. The lad can ride at ninety pounds and is regarded as a good prospect.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT STAKE OFFERINGS.

It has been a long dry spell for horsemen since they last enjoyed the pleasure of scanning stake proposals from the New York racing organizations. It results that the big list of stakes now offered to close for entries April 28 is a particularly pleasing indication of the certain revival of racing in the vicinity of the greatest center of population on this continent. No class is more vitally interested in this matter than the owners of thoroughbreds, and it will be strange indeed if they do not rally en masse to the support of the coming Belmont Park meeting in the only effective way of nominating every horse they possess capable of racing in good company. The stakes now offered are in behalf of the Westchester Racing Association in conjunction with the Brooklyn Jockey Club, Empire City Racing Association and Metropolitan Jockey, being therefore the stake programs of four solid racing organizations rolled up into one attractive program. The events are the following:

Here are twenty-three stake races with a grendowment of $39,500 in added money. It is most important thing for the encouragement a fostering of racing that has occurred in a number of years. It now remains to see what response owners will make and they now have less than days in which to do their part. Their nominations should be mailed promptly to Clerk of the Courtwestehester Racing Association, 6 East 46th S. New York.
